

FAQ

Where are the restrooms?

Exit our office and make a left, walk towards the end of the building and at the fountain make another left, and enter the main lobby on your left. The restrooms will be on either side of the elevators.

Is there free Wi-Fi?

Yes. Search for username "CVCF Guest" and enter password "Community."

How much is it to reserve a meeting room at CVCF?

Central Valley Community Foundation gladly offers our three meeting rooms to all nonprofit organizations for free.

I made a reservation for the C4C, do I have to set-up and take-down the room?

Yes. All groups reserving any room at CVCF are responsible for their set-up and take-down. Additional time will be added to your reservation.

I'll need catering, can CVCF help me order?

No. All groups are responsible for their own catering. If you're looking for catering suggestions ask for our Catering/Restaurant Suggestion Guide.

Does CVCF offer an audio or visual access?

Yes, we offer a variety of different tech equipment to use for your meeting. Please speak with Community Engagement Associate, Laura Ramos at ramos@centralvalleycf.org or 559-226-5600 for more information.

Does CVCF provide any printing?

No. We ask any materials you'll need printed are taken care of before your event.

How far in advance can I reserve a meeting room?

Future reservations can be made up until November 2019.

What are the hours I can make a reservation?

Many times, groups have a meeting that starts or ends outside of our regular office hours—which are M-F from 8 am- 5 pm. If this is the case a CVCF staff must be present to open or close the office. Our Community Engagement Associate can see if staff can be available.

Can I make reoccurring meetings?

Yes, however, there are restrictions. Please speak with our Community Engagement Associate.

Can I make a reservation on the weekends?

This would be considered a special request. If there is CVCF staff available we may be able to accommodate this request. Please note: there is a $50 fee if your reservation is confirmed.

Is there a map I can give my attendees to find the CVCF office?

Yes. Please email our Community Engagement Associate for the map.
