

AND THE WINNERS ARE...

El espíritu de las danzas (The Spirit of Traditional Dances) by Adán Ávalos

“El espíritu de las danzas” is a lyrical documentary of the celebratory power of dance and music to keep history, tradition, and community alive for Central Valley Oaxacan families.

N.$.D by Chad Saechao

A hip-hop record label based in Visalia is inspiring the next generation of artists in the Central Valley.

Family Rx by Christopher Velazquez

Pharmacist Rafael Velazquez has owned and operated Merced Drug for over 20 years, living the American dream while helping countless families in the community.

Peacock: Exeter, The Anti-Filipino Riot by Glenn Philip Martinez Aquino

Exploring the anti-Filipino riot that occurred on October 24, 1929 in Exeter, and the contributions that Filipinos have made to agri-business and labor throughout California and the U.S.

Story Queens by Haley White

Drag Story Time in Fresno are part of a national movement to promote love, acceptance, fun, and reading for children and adults alike.

Remembering Trevor by Joshua Krause

In the wake of tragedy, a grieving Clovis mother takes steps to promote suicide awareness and prevention.

Professional AND Skater by Juan ‘Carlos’ Burgos

Dedicated high school teacher by day and talented skateboarder by night, Ronald Tagliareni combines his values and passions to make his community a better place.

Mariposa Is Music! by Karen Dusek

Mariposa is a small town with a big soul, and nothing reflects that more than the music of the Mariposa Symphony Orchestra founded in 2002 by Les Marsden.

Capital G by Regina Simmons

Fresno’s Green Team and Youth Ambassadors are on a mission to promote sustainable practices including innovative water recycling processes and air quality monitoring.

Suffrage in the Valley by Orlando J. Gomez

The League of Women Voters Fresno will celebrate the 100th anniversary of national women’s suffrage in 2020. Learn about the women behind the movement, and the extraordinary role that the Central Valley played to influence the cause.

FOR MORE INFORMATION GO TO THEBIGTELL.ORG